Mrs. Gordon is spending a few days at her city residence, No. 308 North Charles Street, Baltimore, after having been at the Northern watering resorts, and the early fall at her estate, "Wakefield Manor," Virginia.

Interesting Details of Miss Breece's Wedding.

Miss Jean Reid, daughter of the American ambassador at London, who returned to England last week after a brief visit on this side, will be a bridesmaid at the marriage of Miss Anne Breece to Lord Alastair Innes-Ker.

The bridegroom's two nieces, Lady Angela Villiers and Lady Millicent Orr-Ewing, will also be of the bridal party.

Lord Alastair, who is the younger brother of the Duke of Roxburgh and his presumptive to the dukedom, will have his brother, Lord Robert Innes-Ker, for best man.

The bridal gown, which was designed by Miss Breece and Miss Jean Reid, will be of soft white satin, tight fitting, with hertha sleeves of point d'alence lace.

The train is cut with the skirt, the plait flowing from the waist line with yards of fullness, sweeping behind. The skirt is crossed diagonally by a band of seed pearl trimming, fourteen inches deep. The bodice has a square collar of pearls and bands of pearl trimmings.

Miss Breece, who is a daughter of the late Mr. W. L. Breece, of New York, and a stepdaughter of Mr. Harry Higgins, is not an heiress. She has beauty and charm of manner, and the announcement of her engagement to Lord Innes-Ker was received with enthusiasm in London drawing rooms.

The Duchess of Roxburgh's wedding gifts are said to include a furnished house in Mayfair. She is credited with having made the match.

mond to Jamestown Island on October 8th, to witness the ceremony of the D. A. R. memorial building, being given into the custody of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities.

They have a most pleasant opportunity of making the trip.

Mrs. Benjamin L. Purcell, chairman of the Jamestown committee, has arranged with the James River Navigation Company for those desiring to go to go down on the regular boat, reaching the island at 1 P. M. This boat will remain at the island until 3 P. M., and will then take passengers on to Norfolk. Those returning to Richmond will leave at the same hour by the regular boat coming up the river from Norfolk.

The building will be presented by Mrs. Purcell to Mrs. Donald McLean, president-general of the National Society, D. A. R., who will turn it over to the A. P. V. A. President Lyon Gardner Tyler, of William and Mary College, will receive the building on behalf of the association.

Mrs. McLean will come to Jamestown Island from Norfolk and return for the handsome reception to be given in the New York Building on the evening of October 8th. As the opportunity will be presented to Daughters to see the memorial building and historic Jamestown, and then to reach Norfolk the same evening, it is probable that the exercises will be largely attended.

GIRL'S REMAINS IDENTIFIED

Aubrey Richardson identifies body found in River as That of His Sister.

The body taken from the river last Saturday morning was identified yesterday morning as that of Miss Mamie Richardson, of Hunter's Lodge, near Charlottesville. The identification was made by a brother of the dead girl by means of certain markings in the teeth of the corpse.

The body was inspected yesterday morning by Mr. Aubrey Richardson, a brother of the girl, and Mr. W. P. Wright, reached the city and went to the establishment of Billey & Sons, where the body had been placed for burial.

Mr. Wright is the young man who was with the girl on the day of the accident. On the afternoon of June 1st the couple were attempting to ford the river at the Rivanna River when the buggy upset, and Miss Richardson was swept away, beyond human aid. For more than four months the relatives of the girl have been endeavoring to find the body, and not until Friday afternoon was there a clue as to where the remains might be found.

The body will be sent to Keswick, Albemarle county, this morning, where the funeral will take place.

GOVERNOR VET SEEMR. BRYAN

Trying to Arrange to Come Up from Exposition for a Few Hours.

FIGHT STATE IMMIGRATION

European Papers Say Foreigners Are Badly Treated Here. Capitol Notes.

Governor Swanson says he deeply regrets that he will probably be unable to be in the city on Bryan Day, which will be October 11th, though he is hoping to run up from the exposition during the day and spend a short while with the distinguished Nebraskan, whose colleague he was in Congress for several terms.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will have their day October 11th, and the Governor and Mrs. Swanson will participate in the coronation ball.

"I hope, however, to be able to run up for a while on the 11th and see Mr. Bryan, though I must return that evening in time for a reception which Mrs. Swanson and I will tender the distinguished New Yorkers at the Virginia Building."

Certain foreign newspapers are still hammering at Virginia, and are printing stories known here to be without foundation in fact, and yet which are damaging to the State. The immigration commissioners are getting a desirable class of European labor.

A New York correspondent of one of the European papers in a columnar article has sent Mrs. Mary Grace Quackenbush to Florida to procure evidence for the prosecution of alleged promoters of criminal slavery.

More than a year ago Mrs. Quackenbush, traveling as a magazine writer, obtained proof of brutalities committed in the Carolinas, Virginia, Florida, and other States by persons who, after deceiving immigrants by resolute promises to their camps or estates, kept the prisoners under armed guards.

Those who tried to escape were pursued by bloodhounds and often killed. They were invariably flogged and otherwise maltreated.

So far as Virginia is concerned this is known to be a glaring misrepresentation of facts, and it is not believed by any one in this community that any such thing has gone on in any of the States.

Still, these articles are hurting the cause of immigration in the South and are giving the commissioners a great deal of trouble.

Teachers Poorly Paid.

A division of the superintendent in one of the Southwest counties writes State Superintendent Eggleston that owing to the fact that the average salary paid white teachers is only $1.50 per month, it is hard for him to get his schools properly started.

He says that these low salaries have caused the teachers to seek employment elsewhere, and that out of forty-three who took the State examination only fifteen passed, and the department will have to make up the difference.

See if the trouble can be remedied. Miss Agnes Lumsden, of Marion, has been engaged to teach for the Indian school in the reservation in King William county, and will report for duty on October 15th.

Miss Lumsden was a student of the Virginia State Normal School at Staunton this year, and comes to the department with fine recommendations.

Fiscal Year Ends.

The fiscal year ended in all the State departments with the close of business yesterday, and the officials and their clerks were all busy preparing their accounts and books for the new year, which begins this morning.

The annual reports of the several departments will embrace all operations of the State government up to last night.

Chairman W. McDonald Lee and Secretary S. Wilkins Mathews, of the Board of Pensions, arrived at the State department and began compiling data for their report, which will probably be the first one issued. They were at the Auditor's office for some time, and will probably remain here for several days.

Military Matters.

The National Association of Military Surgeons of the United States will hold a convention in Norfolk October 16th-18th, and Governor Swanson has been asked to name delegates on the part of the State.

The resignation of Captain J. Cloyd Knox, of Company C, Richmond Light Infantry Blues, has been accepted by the Governor, and an election will shortly take place to fill the vacancy.

Adjutant R. Randolph Tucker will probably be promoted to the position.

NURSES' CONVENTION

Meeting Will Open at 8:30 O'Clock To-night.

A comparatively small delegation of Richmond graduate nurses left yesterday for Staunton for the annual nurses' meeting to be held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall at Staunton at 8:30 o'clock to-night.

The fact that many of the nurses are away on their vacation or busily occupied, explains the small Richmond delegation.

A paper on tuberculosis will be read to-night by Miss Helen Lamotte, of Baltimore.

Prominent members of the Graduate Association to be present will be Miss Mary E. of New York, and Miss Nevins of Washington. The Hotel Rovery, in Staunton, will be headquarters for the visiting nurses.

NEW COMMISSIONERS.

Cassie E. Smith and George Watt Appointed Yesterday's Hearings.

Judge R. Carter Smith, of the Henrico County Court, yesterday morning appointed two new commissioners of revenue. Mr. Cassie E. Smith was appointed for the upper division, and Mr. George Watt for the lower division.

Mr. Watt was appointed for the lower division, Fairfield and Varina, to succeed Sheriff-elect L. H. Kemp.

Alleged Deserter From Navy.

Charles Wells, an alleged deserter from the United States Navy, was placed under arrest yesterday morning by Officer Andrews and locked up in the First Police Station.

The man claims that he is simply on today's tour, and that he is not a deserter. The man will be held, however, until word can be received from League Island as to what place he is said to have deserted.

BROOK TURNPIKE MATTER IN COURT

Proceedings to set aside court orders, under which nearly three miles of the property of the Brook Turnpike Company was condemned by the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Railway, temporary the railway use to the highway, were commenced in the Henrico County Circuit Court yesterday morning by W. A. Hammond.

Mr. Hammond claims that the landowners were not properly notified; that therefore their rights and damages have not been barred; that in many other respects the condemnation proceedings were not in accordance with law; that the proceedings were misleading, and that, finally, there was no reason for the destruction of the entire pike. He wants a rehearing of the whole matter, claiming that the turnpike company and the railway company are under the same ownership, and that the landowners have had no hearing in the premises.

Mr. Hammond also contends that he has been much damaged by the destruction of the boulevard, and that he has a right to a hearing.

It is understood that other landowners have also been complaining.

Messrs. Gardner and Lightfoot, and Willis D. Smith are counsel for Mr. Hammond.
